GENERAL CRITERIA

- Impact of the Project Entry to the local community (e.g., improvement in income, sanitation, literacy, health, etc.)
- Social Mobilization (involvement of the community, especially the youth, in planning, implementation, and evaluation)
- Innovativeness (application/introduction of new technologies, best practices, and uniqueness of products or services and promotion of indigenous materials)
- Sustainability and Probability of Duplication

SEARCH RULES

- All entries shall be evaluated mainly on the basis of the project entry submitted. An organization shall submit only one (1) project entry.
- There shall be no discrimination as to the organization's background, ethnic origin and socio-economic status.
- The project entry submitted for evaluation must not have been a recipient of direct government financial assistance or grants. Funding for the project entry must primarily be non-governmental. The allowable limit for government funding is five percent (5%).
- Recipients of other awards are eligible. Previous TAYO finalists and winners may still participate, provided that they enter a project entry different from that entered in the preceding search.
- Registration in the NYC's Youth Organization Registration Program (YORP) is mandatory.
- All decisions of the TAYO Screening Committees and the Panel of Judges shall be final. No correspondence pertaining to these decisions shall be entertained.
- The organizers reserve the right to modify, amend, or alter the above-mentioned rules or waive compliance therewith at its sole discretion, if such steps are in accordance with the purpose of the TAYO Awards scheme.
- All materials submitted to the TAYO Secretariat automatically become property of the organizers.

QUALIFICATIONS

The TAYO Search is open to all groups, organizations, clubs and societies whose membership and leadership is composed of at least fifteen (15) members classified as youth, that is, age 15 to 30 years old.

The Organization shall be judged on the basis of a recent project or program that created an impact on the community and which best reflects the efforts of the youth sector towards nation-building. A Project Entry begun in January 2003 may qualify. All Project Entries must have been completed by the deadline of submission of requirements. For continuing projects, a major portion shall have been undertaken by the time of the deadline. The deadline is on 31 January 2004.

I hereby certify upon my honor that all facts and information indicated herein are true and correct to the best of my knowledge. I further declare that any information given by me that is untrue may constitute a ground for disqualification in the search for T.A.Y.O. and a prosecution for perjury.

Further, I subscribe and agree that the T.A.Y.O. organizers have the sole prerogative to select the winners of the T.A.Y.O., and that their decision is final and executory.

In witness hereof, I am executing and signing this statement voluntarily without compulsion.
